

RBM Terminology

- Input: The human, financial or material resources used.
- Activity: Actions to be undertaken within the scope of the project.
E.g. Training
- Output: Positive/negative, primary/secondary, intended/un-intended short-term results and effects of completed activities.
E.g.. New skill or ability that resulted from the training
- Outcome: Medium-term results and effects.
E.g. Change of attitude/change on organizational level
- Impact: Long-term results and effects.
E.g. Change on institutional or national level

- Impact – What you want to achieve in society (program level)
- Medium term outcome – Higher goals you want to contribute to (program level)

---

- Short term outcome – Goals you define in your project that you want to achieve (measurable)
- Output – Result from activities
- Activities – What you do to achieve short term outcome, the activities in your project

Scope of change programme

Scope of change project

Chain of Results

